

Colombia is the second most biodiverse country in the world, due to its tropical climate, it has a great variety of species of flora, fauna and geography.

Cali has an International Airport Alfonso Bonilla Aragón (Palmaseca).

Mobility options:

- Take a bus with a fare of $7.000COP to the Cali Transportation Terminal and then another transport to the hotel.
- Take a cab or private transportation with an approximate value between $50.000COP and $80.000COP to the hotel.

- Cali is the third largest city in Colombia.
- Located in the southwest, in the department of Valle del Cauca.
- Average temperature between 24°C and 31°C.
- Height above sea level 1018 meters above sea level.
- Approximately 2,227,642 inhabitants.

Gastronomy

Its varied and particular gastronomy in each territory is characterized by the fusion of flavors from indigenous, peasant, European and African cuisine, which, together with fruits and vegetables from the region, have perfected the final result.

Urban Tourist Sites

Cali Boulevard, Loma de la Cruz, Cerro de las Tres Cruces, Lago de la Babilla, Art Museums, Libraries, Cultural Houses

Rural Tourist Places

Mountains in the Farallones de Cali,
Beaches in Buenaventura, 7 River
Basins, Waterfalls in Villacarmelo

Mobility

Integrated Public Transportation System (STIP MIO), Urban buses, Jeeps (Camperos) and Chivas (rural transportation).

! Thank you and Welcome !